

Bruce Harrold
Business Development Manager

Bruce is an enthusiastic, flexible and dedicated member of the DeepStore team with over twenty years experience in the records management industry, taking exceptional pride in offering a quality service to customers. Bruce is primarily based in the South of England and is proficient at building professional relationships across all industry sectors. He works closely with the operational team to ensure DeepStore can provide a bespoke service, which meets their customers' needs.

Bruce's spare time is taken up by his young family and a love of sports. He particularly enjoys competitive running and watching his football team win.