

Compass Minerals and DeepStore donated toys worth £300 to the local Winsford branch of the Salvation Army, for their Christmas Toy Appeal.

The toys were handed to the charity, which helps the most vulnerable in the community, by Dan Holland, Chairman of the company's charity committee.

They were purchased with money raised by the committee throughout the year
#clearlyessential #charity #community